THE BEST OF CROATIA

7 nights | Venice Return | Le Lyrial

Departing 18 Jun 2021

SAVE UP TO 5%*

Discover the beauty of the Adriatic with PONANT on an exceptional 7-night cruise in Croatia. Aboard Le Lyrial, fall under the spell of the hidden treasures of the Croatian coast and its turquoise waters.

Your voyage will begin in Italy with embarkation in Venice. An opportunity to discover or rediscover the sublime city of the Doges, with its many canals, its vaporetti and its mythical gondolas.

Le Lyrial will then call at Korčula, full of olive groves, vineyards and ancient buildings. An island marked by history, the birthplace of the explorer Marco Polo.

You will then head to the aptly named "Pearl of the Adriatic", Dubrovnik, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Surrounded by medieval ramparts, its terracotta-tiled roofs, its palaces, cloisters and fountains are bound to impress you and will plunge you into the heart of Croatian history.

Your ship will then set sail towards Montenegro, for an unforgettable cruise in the Bay of Kotor. This impressive gap between two mountain ranges is home to a veritable inland lake with a magical atmosphere; the medieval city of Kotor and its many historical monuments are its jewels.

Your exploration of the Croatian coastlines will conclude with visits of Hvar, Pula and Rovinj before you head back to Venice.

HIGHLIGHTS

- UNESCO World Heritage Sites: the lagoon of Venice, the old town of Dubrovnik and Kotor, the cathedral St Jacques in Šibenik, the Diocletian's Palace in Split.
- Discover during one single cruise 6 Croatian cities, amazing for their cultural and historic heritage and their charm.
In Montenegro, sailing in the Bay of Kotor and a one-day stop in the town of Kotor.
- The opportunity to (re)discover Venice, the City of the Doges before or after your cruise.

AN EXPLORATION OF WORLD AFFAIRS: SAILING THE AEGEAN SEA

7 nights | Istanbul to Athens | Le Bougainville

Departing 10 Aug 2021

SAVE UP TO 30%*

Featuring lectures and discussions with contributing writer to The New Yorker, Robin Wright, and former Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, John McLaughlin, this voyage on the Aegean Sea offers an extraordinary opportunity to talk with these leading thinkers and actors on the world stage about the current state of U.S. relations with the wider world.

This voyage is a journey to the intellectual home of the western world, where each day brings new vistas of royal blue sea, bleached cliffs, whitewashed houses, and the exquisite remains of Classical civilization. You will call first in Turkey: first at Pergamon, once the very heart of scholarship in the Hellenistic world; and then at Ephesus, one of the most awe-inspiring survivals of Roman architecture in the Mediterranean.

At Ephesus, you will enjoy an included guided tour of the ruins with an exclusive after-hours cocktail reception and a concert by the Aegean Chamber Orchestra at the ruins in front of the Library of Celsus. Your day in Patmos brings us face-to-face with the stunning 11th-century Monastery of St. John, while Delos, Mykonos, and Paros embody the most iconic images of the Greek isles: spectacular Cycladic architecture, breathtaking vistas, and temples and ruins that reveal millennia of history. Your final call is in Nafplion for an excursion to Mycenae, the centre of power from which Agamemnon launched his attack on Troy.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Onboard discussions on World Affairs with contributing writer to The New Yorker, Robin Wright, and former Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, John McLaughlin.
- An included guided tour of Ephesus with an exclusive after-hours cocktail reception and a concert by the Aegean Chamber Orchestra at the ruins in front of the Library of Celsus.
- Seven UNESCO World Heritage sites en route.
- An evening at leisure to experience the captivating nightlife of Mykonos.
- Optional pre-program featuring the highlights of Istanbul and a stay at the fabled Pera Palace Hotel.
- Optional excursions in Dikili, Patmos, Delos, Mykonos, Paros, and Nafplion.

A MUSICAL ODYSSEY ALONG THE COAST OF WESTERN EUROPE

8 nights | Rosyth to Lisbon | Le Jacques Cartier

Departing 22 Sep 2021

SAVE UP TO 25%*

Created specially for like-minded travellers.

We invite you to join us on this musical odyssey from Edinburgh (you will embark in neighbouring Rosyth) to Lisbon, as we explore the rich cultural heritage of western Europe while accompanied by world-class chamber musicians performing a repertoire highlighting composers and musical styles from the countries you will visit. Our musical program will be exclusively curated by Artistic Director Michael Parloff and feature the exhilarating Sitkovetsky Trio – violinist Alexander Sitkovetsky, pianist Wu Qian, and cellist Isang Enders – and the acclaimed English clarinet virtuoso Julian Bliss.

In ports of call along your way, you will have access to myriad cultural and historic treasures, including five UNESCO World Heritage sites, while your days at sea will be filled with music from composers who hail from the lands you will encounter during your cruise. Highlights will include works from the likes of César Franck, Erik Satie, and Claude Debussy. As you head further south to the Iberian Peninsula, you will explore lively Spanish dance music and end with works themed on a night at the opera – a veritable feast of music!

HIGHLIGHTS

- A series of concerts aboard ship, exclusively curated by Artistic Director Michael Parloff, featuring the exhilarating Sitkovetsky Trio and the acclaimed English clarinet virtuoso Julian Bliss.
- A voyage through five countries – the United Kingdom, Belgium, France, Spain, and Portugal.
- An included private concert in the historic Royal Chapel of the Hostal dos Reis Católicos in Santiago de Compostela.
- An included full-day excursion to La Coruña and Santiago de Compostela, including lunch.
- Five UNESCO World Heritage sites en route: Historic Centre of Brugge (Bruges); Mont-Saint-Michel and it's Bay; Tower of Hercules; Santiago de Compostela (Old Town); and Historic Centre of Oporto (Porto), Luiz I Bridge and Monastery of Serra do Pilar.

EXPLORING OGASAWARA ISLANDS

9 nights | Osaka to Guam | Le Soleal

Departing 14 Nov 2021

SAVE UP TO 30%*

PONANT proposes a 9-night all-new expedition cruise aboard Le Soléal from Osaka to Guam, discovering Japan's wildest archipelago, the Ogasawara Islands.

You'll embark in Osaka, Japan's second city, which is home to a fortress dating back to the 16th century, before setting sail towards the island of Hachijo-jima, which lies off the coast of Tokyo and is composed of two magnificent volcanos.

You'll then reach the Ogasawara Islands, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2011. In this extraordinarily wild setting, in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, you'll discover volcanic landscapes of outstanding beauty: white sandy beaches, turquoise waters, coral formations, lush tropical forest, cliffs...

Located a few thousand kilometres off the coast of the main Japanese archipelago, and accessible only by the sea, these subtropical islands nicknamed the "Galapagos of the East" preserve incredibly rich fauna and flora: more than 40% of the 500 plant species are endemic.

Finally, you'll reach the idyllic island of Guam in Micronesia, your disembarkation port.

Encounters with wildlife represent possible experiences but cannot be guaranteed.

HIGHLIGHTS

- An all-new cruise discovering the preserved islands of Hachijo-jima and Ogasawara.
- Outings and shore visits with an experienced team of naturalist-guides.
- A UNESCO World Heritage Site: the landscapes, fauna and flora of the Ogasawara archipelago.
- The Hachijo-Fuji mountain on the island of Hachijo-jima.
- Landscapes: white sandy beaches, turquoise waters, coral formations, lush tropical forest, cliffs...
- Endemic fauna and flora, the possibility of observing marine mammals and snorkelling.

SAVE UP TO 30%*

Follow in the footsteps of the gold prospectors on this 7-night cruise brought to you by PONANT. This exceptional itinerary aboard Le Soléal will take you from Alaska to British Columbia, to discover magnificent landscapes marked by the Gold Rush.

After embarking in Juneau, the capital of Alaska long inhabited by the Tlingit people, do not miss the chance to visit Skagway, where many pioneers came in search of gold at the end of the 19th century, and Haines, where majestic bald eagles are often spotted flying over the houses.

Sailing along Tracy Arm, one of Alaska's most beautiful fjords will undoubtedly be one of the highlights of your cruise.

You will then continue sailing between rain forest and glacier valleys to reach Sitka, a former Russian settlement surrounded by tall mountains known for their centuries-old totem poles and the small city of Ketchikan, home to charming, colourful stilt houses, and the wonderful landscapes of the Misty Fjords.

Before disembarking in Vancouver, you will make your way down the east coast of Alaska, whose Inside Passage, shaped by the sculpture of imposing glaciers, is home to vertiginous fjords. Here, the natural environment includes glaciers, coniferous forests, and myriad islands and islets magnified by the wonderful play of light.

The encounters with the wildlife described above illustrate possible experiences only and cannot be guaranteed.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Discover Alaska's breathtaking landscapes: fjords, glaciers, waterfalls, primary forests, giant sequoias.
- Wildlife: brown bears, black bears, sea otters, orcas, humpback whales, bald eagles.
- Tlingit American Indians Art and traditions in Ketchikan.
- Visit of Skagway, the gateway to the mythical "Gold Rush" with an optional walk along the railroad of White Pass.
- Sail in the Tracy Arm Fjord, close to Sawyer Glacier.

Departing 2 Jul 2021

Included: Economy Flight from Paris to Longyearbyen & transfer from airport to pier of Longyearbyen (and return)

SAVE UP TO 15%*

PONANT invites you to experience something exceptional by discovering the Far North and the immense open spaces of the polar Arctic and its ice floes that extend to the North Pole.

Over this expedition at sea aboard your ship, in the company of our specialist teams, you will discover the exceptional flora and fauna that lives in these extreme conditions, where temperatures reach -30°C in winter. Your ship will first sail in the direction of the magnificent glaciers of Kongsfjorden, and then to the superb landscapes of the Nordvest-Spitsbergen National Park. The deep blue waters of its fjords surrounded by snow-capped mountains are home to many species of cetaceans while its islands, beaches and wide bays shelter the remains of old whaling stations and trappers' cabins.

You will then set sail eastbound to try to reach the coasts of the Nordaust-Svalbard Nature Reserve, and the Hinlopen Strait, a real polar desert sheltering many basaltic islets, majestic glaciers and a rich marine ecosystem: colonies of sea birds, walruses, polar bears and Arctic foxes come to feed here.

During this unforgettable expedition, our ship will sail to latitudes of 80° north and you will discover that unique feeling of having reached the top of the world.

HIGHLIGHTS

- A brand-new cruise to discover the countless riches of Svalbard.
- Outings and shore visits in Zodiac® inflatables with a team of experienced naturalist guides.
- Hiking opportunity.
- Sail in the Hinlopen Strait between Spitsbergen and Nordaustlandet
- Landscapes: ice floes, jagged mountains, icebergs, ice caps, steep-sided valleys, sheer cliffs, huge glaciers.
- Discover Europe's largest ice cap in Nordaustlandet.
- Wildlife: polar bears, walruses, Arctic foxes, Svalbard reindeer, cetaceans, sea birds.

EXPEDITION ALONG THE EAST COAST OF GREENLAND - WITH NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

15 nights | Kangerlussuaq to Tromso | L'Austral

Departing 15 Aug 2021

Included: Economy Flight from Paris to Kangerlussuaq & Return flight from Tromso to Paris. Transfers to and from pier also included

SAVE UP TO 25%*

PONANT invites you to discover the east coast of Greenland during a new 15-night expedition cruise onboard L'Austral, and venture into an extremely remote part of the world, source of fascination to generations of explorers. From Kangerlussuaq, your ship will set sail south, before reaching the east coast of Greenland.

You will then sail along the Blosseville Coast, named after the French captain who saw it for the first time in 1833. Here, the ice sheet meets the sea. You will discover the Scoresby Sund, the world's largest fjord network and the Ittoqqortoormiit Region.

Your ship will also head for the Northeast Greenland National Park, the largest national park in the world and a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve: witness alpine magically coloured landscapes as far as the eye can see.

L'Austral will then cross the Arctic Circle before making its way to Jan Mayen Island, which was very dear to Captain Jean-Baptiste Charcot. Located at the limit of the Arctic and North-Atlantic oceans, this remote and uninhabited volcanic island was once a major whaling base and is home to large colonies of birds.

The encounters with the wildlife described above illustrate possible experiences only and cannot be guaranteed.

HIGHLIGHTS

- A cruise in partnership with National Geographic Expeditions offering enrichment with a National Geographic Photographer and an Expert onboard.
- Discover the eastern coast of Greenland, a region that long remained isolated as it was hard to reach.
- Outings and shore visits in Zodiac® inflatables with the naturalists.
- UNESCO World Heritage Site: Biosphere Reserve of the Northeast Greenland National Park.
- Meet the Inuit people.
- Wildlife: polar bears, seals, Arctic foxes and hares, sea birds.

ALASKA AND ITS FUR TRADERS - WITH NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

14 nights | Nome to Vancouver | L'Austral

Departing 23 Sep 2021

SAVE UP TO 25%*

PONANT invites you to follow the steps of trappers and the indigenous peoples of Alaska, during a 14-night expedition voyage aboard L'Austral.

From Nome to Vancouver, discover a remote territory still unknown and wild, landscape from infinite tundra to glittering lakes, wide spaces, gigantic glaciers, steep mountains and temperate rainforest.

Your ship will first sail along the Bering Strait, before heading south to reach Saint Paul in the Pribilof Islands. In a Zodiac® dinghy you will then land on the lush shores of Dutch Harbor in the Aleutian Islands, where you will have the option of participating in organised hikes.

After sailing in the magnificent Icy Bay to discover a fjord surrounded by hanging glaciers and vertiginous waterfalls, succumb to the charms of Alaska's forests and discover the Tlingit village of Kake, where you might be lucky enough to spot some black bears.

Then, set off to meet the whales and other marine mammals in Alert Bay, in British Columbia, before making your way to Vancouver, your disembarkation port.

The encounters with the wildlife described above illustrate possible experiences only and cannot be guaranteed.

HIGHLIGHTS

- A cruise in partnership with National Geographic Expeditions offering enrichment with a National Geographic Photographer and an Expert onboard.
- Shore visits in Zodiac® inflatables with a team of experienced naturalist guides.
